Responsible tourism: an estate designed to respect the environment and to share and engage people in tourism activities.
150 staff to greet and cater to clients' every need.
Directly beside the National Park of Toubkal, the structures of the estate are built of earth and stone, for both the accommodation and the 3 restaurants, with beautiful terraces.
Terres d'Amanar Estate was declared winner of the Morocco 2009 environmental prize, awarded by the High Council of the Foundation of HM King Mohammed VI.
Terres d'Amanar Estate, 1200 meters altitude, and 300 acres, is both an eco-resort village, with tents and eco-lodges, and an adventure park of discovery and leisure; it is highly suitable for sporting activities as well as the culture and craft of the Berber region; zip lines, accro-park (tree top adventure), trekking, orienteering, treasure hunting, mountain biking, climbing, mountain walks. We also welcome groups for seminars or incentives and can arrange team-building exercises (up to 1300 people). The site dominates the valley of Marrakesh and offers a superb panorama of the surrounding Berber villages and the peaks of the Atlas Mountains. Campfires in the evening for residents staying.
Two swimming pools located on site with one reserved for the eco-lodges, bar, reception desk, TV lounge, rose garden, biologic vegetable garden.
Adventure package: package consists of two "air" activities available on the site: "air course" and "treetops course". Completion: 3-5 hours
Air course consists of 4 zip lines and two bridges, or a total of 1 100 km of air route, with 4 zip lines (320 m, 200 m, 185 m, 135 m), a monkey bridge (160 m) and a suspension bridge (105 m). The completion of the course is a period of about 1-2 hours and depending on age and level of participants.
Treetops course (accro-park) in the middle of the pine forest of the Terres d'Amanar Estate: 3 courses of variable difficulties, choice, and a fourth specific course for children aged 4 to 7 years. The "free access treetops course" tariff is exclusively reserved for customers living in tent-lodges or eco-lodges; the purchase of this package allows residents to make as many courses as they wish during their stay, subject to availability of course. Completion of the course is a period of about 2-3 hours, depending on age and level of participants.
